

ONE CENT--LAST EDITION--ONE CENT

MANIAC MURDERS FIVE--DYNAMITE
CHARGE FINALLY ENDS HIS CAREER

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 248

Chicago, Tuesday, July 18, 1916

398

HOYNE STRIKES BLOW AT AUTO SLAYERS

Big Business Hit by State's Attorney's Crusade Against Drivers of Auto Trucks and Joy Riders—134
Killed by Autos Since Jan. 1, 1916.

Reckless joy riders and time-killing drivers of big auto trucks are to be the target of a campaign by State's Att'y Hoyne. 134 men, women and children have been crushed to death in Chicago streets since Jan. 1, 1916. It is these figures that have aroused Hoyne.

The prosecutor has indicated that the crusade may hit the State street stores, the newspaper trust, etc., but the guilty will be brought to justice.

"I have ordered my assistants to bring indictments against any man responsible for auto killings," said Hoyne. "I don't care who is hit by it. Chicago streets are no longer safe. Drivers for big commercial institutions are responsible for just as many deaths as reckless and drunken speed maniacs. A man who kills a person by lawless driving is just as guilty of intent as a man who kills with a revolver. My assistants will ask for the extreme penalty in the case of every man brought to trial."

Chauffeurs for State street stores, forced to go at high speed because of